

Images of Haverhill

Aerial Views

Left: View from St Mary's Church tower looking South. Fields in the distance are now covered by new homes and the by-pass. The line of houses is Primrose Hill. In the foreground is the Gospel Hall where flats now stand. Haverhill's first cinema, Premier Picture Palace, can be seen in the back garden of a house in Chantry Road. Camps Road and the Eastern Counties bus garage are on the right

Below: View of St Mary's Church taken from the factory chimney of Chantry Mills. The railway and old Bell Hotel are in the background. Seven Acres Fields, the early home of Haverhill Rovers, can also be seen
