

Images of Haverhill

Leisure and Entertainment

Above: Performers from the 1908 pantomime "Cinderella" taken in The Mount garden, Hamlet Road. Grace Gurteen is second from left in front row. The Mount, one of the largest houses of Victorian Haverhill, was demolished in the 1960s

Above: "Zurika", Girls Friendly Society, June 1925

Right: John Bradnam (1879-1959), a cyclist at Haverhill Gala 1896-1899, pictured with his prizes. The gala was held at Hamlet Croft from 1888 to the late 1950s

Above: The old swimming pool, taken in 1979. This pool was in the Pightle, where the police station car park is now

Above: Haverhill's first swimming pool which opened in 1897, situated at the water works at Burton End. This photograph is from around 1900