

Ledbury

English Festival

A BIG THANK YOU

On behalf of the LEDBURY ENGLISH FESTIVAL, may we thank you for your help in making Ledbury's first ever English Festival a GREAT SUCCESS.

The many events were enjoyed by many residents and visitors over the five days.

The Festival promoted Ledbury as a very English market town at its best, putting Ledbury on the map, reaching out to many in the region who had not previously enjoyed the Ledbury experience and the many things that are very Local, very English and very Ledbury.

The bringing together of so much local talent and different sectors of the community under the banner of the Ledbury English Festival is really what made it a great Ledbury success.

So to you all the performers, the organisers, the sponsors, the volunteers, the police, the producers, the town council and all those who turned up in fabulous costumes for the Grand Parade and publicity shots and to the countryside agency whose Local Heritage Initiative grant allowed the Festival to happen.

The English Festival has secured funding from the LHI to produce a new guide for the town which will help the present to understand Ledbury's yesterdays.

We thank everybody involved for their time and support. You will be pleased to know we will be doing it all again next year.

Yours in anticipation of bigger and better English Festivals in years to come.
